GIFTS
THAT LAST
IN THE HOME.

Not a gesture. An object with a life of its own.

AGAINST THE DISPOSABLE HOME.

Most homes today are assembled quickly, styled for photographs, and replaced within a decade. Reeva Sethi Home exists in opposition to that. We choose objects meant to remain part of a home for years — pieces with memory, permanence, and daily use.

When a new family crosses the threshold of a home, what they need is not a basket. They need an anchor — something that says: this is real, this is yours, this is the beginning of something that lasts.

The gift your client will still own in 20 years.

- 1 PERMANENCE OVER TREND
A closing gift should not disappear into a drawer. It should become part of the home — used daily, noticed by guests, kept for years.
- 2 CRAFT, NOT CONVENIENCE
Natural materials, hand-finishing, and small-batch sourcing. Not mass-produced. They carry the mark of how they were made.
- 3 TAILORED TO THE CLIENT
We help match gifts to the client, their home, and budget. Most pieces are available in multiple finishes, colourways, and sizes.
- 4 EFFORTLESS FROM YOUR END
Choose a piece or a set. We handle packaging and your handwritten note. Pickup in Saratoga or local delivery. One call, done.

Heritage weaves chosen for drape, weight, and beauty that doesn't date.

LINEN · VELVET · TAPESTRY

Cushion Covers

The objects on a sofa tell you everything about how someone lives.
Chosen for texture, scale, and quiet character.

WOVEN RATTAN · SET OF THREE

Rattan Hampers

Three graduating hampers — storage that belongs in a room rather than hiding in it.

ANTIQUÉ · ARCHITECTURAL SCALE · WALL ART

Grand Staircase Tapestry

A tapestry is not wall décor. It is textile architecture. These tapestries introduce pattern, scale, and visual weight without the glare of framed art. Their surface absorbs sound, tempers proportion, and settles large walls with quiet authority. Designs draw from classical European motifs, pastoral scenes, and botanical studies.

THE CLOSING GIFT THAT CLAIMS A WALL

No other closing gift does this. It becomes part of the architecture of a home — seen every day, by every person who enters, for years. The most visible, most lasting gift in this collection. And the one most likely to keep your name in a room for decades.
